Public Sector Solutions Announces Contract with the United Way of Columbus Ohio

Public-Sector Solutions (January 28, 2002) announced a new contract with the United Way of Columbus Ohio to furnish, implement and provide training for USL Financials 5.0. This contract was signed only months after the implementation of USL Financials begun for the United Way of Cincinnati. The Fund Accounting System was recommended by the sister agency which made for a quick and easy decision process.

“This is the type of install that is relatively easy, and shows off the scalability of the product,” said Glenn Ellis, Product Specialist for Public-Sector Solutions. “In this case we are able to provide tremendous value.” Statements referring to ability a mid-size nonprofit has in acquiring a top ranked financial system that can be scaled to meet the organizations needs yet remain affordable. Public-Sector Solutions has partnered with third-part vendors to match USL Financials scalability. Larger government agencies and nonprofits are able to benefit from Enterprise Series Solutions consisting of the most sophisticated and highly developed products currently being offered on today. Smaller government and nonprofit organizations are better suited for the affordable Professional Series, which consists of similar products and retain all the functionality of the larger systems.
